"KAYO" BROWN AT ATLAS A. A.

LYNCH CERTAIN OF RE-ELECTION AS DICTATOR

By DAMON RUNYON.

After having been started for retirement by the extra full dose, only to be sent back to work until it is precisely certain that he will be re-elected president of the dear old National League, it is now said that Mr. Thomas J. Lynch, Esq., is going to take quite a hand in said election.

His friends declare that he is going to make a few suggestions to the managers that they will have to adopt if they want to retain his services.

In other words, Thomas J. Lynch is going to do a little dictating.

His friends say that he is going to demand at least a three-year term, with a possibility that he may ask for five years.

Baseball people generally will support the president of the National League in this demand. He has been in office long enough for the managers to determine whether he is worthy of the office, and if he is good enough to be re-elected he is certainly good enough to be given a term of sufficient length to make the job worth while.

A Long Step Forward.

A three or five-year term for the president may be the longest step forward that the old league has taken in many a day. It would put the office above the petty squabbling that marks every meeting, and give the president some dignity.

Moreover, it would give him a chance to do some real work. As conditions are now, he is the central figure of a lot of little petty squabbles.

Lynch is now in a position to make demands and to make them stick. Regardless of the merits of the election as to whether he is the best man for the job, the fact remains that he is the man the National League managers want on the job, and therefore, he can make them come to his terms if he desires.

The opposition to Lynch's re-election will probably be very feeble, as the managers who are expected to be re-elected have been unable to produce a candidate of sufficient strength. The name of Joe (Three) has been mentioned, but it is doubtful if O'Brien would consent to enter the race unless he was absolutely assured of election, and unless he got a long term and a lot more money than the office is paying.

The annual candidacy of Robert Brown of Louisville, is receiving no serious consideration, although it is rumored that Mr. Brown is a capable man. However, the managers believe that they should have a man better versed in the league office, while, as some say, if anybody asks you.

Wants Herrmann Removed.

There is strong indication to many quarters for the removal of Harry Herrmann as a member of the National Commission, and the passing of a man in his job who is not connected with either league.

Mr. Herrmann is everything his friends say for him, but a lot of baseball people believe that he is not connected with the league. He is a comparative outsider on the supreme bench of the National League, and a case arose where the Cincinnati Reds made a deal with the Kansas City American Association team for Cy Morgan, the veteran pitcher. The deal was agreed to pay $10,000 for Morgan and did not pay the purchase price, but when it developed that the pitcher had a sore arm, and Cincinnati repudiated the deal.

They charged there had been collusion between Morgan and the owner of the Kansas City Club, and the pitcher, in return for the fact that Morgan was with them, although Joe Tinker himself said Morgan in action before he was purchased. Anyway, the National Commission annulled the deal, and Cincinnati got its money back from Kansas City.

Baldwin Beats Brown in Atlas A. A. Bout

Charlestown Lightwight Has Big Shade on New Yorker in Twelve-Round Battle

By JACK CONWAY.

Matty Baldwin, left eye swollen on the result of Eddie Murphy and the other leading lightweights in the East. The Charlestown boy "came back" in his twelve-round bout with "Kayo" Brown at the Atlas A. A. last night, and experienced but little difficulty in beating the star-eyed New York Dutchman.

Baldwin put up a slashing fight. His aggressive tactics and ring generalship enabled him to pile up a big lead. Matty evidently has something on the New Yorker, as he has defeated him three times.

The bout was an interesting affair. The "fans" are always assured of plenty of action when two fighters like Baldwin and Brown clash, but "Kayo" did not admit defeat until the last gasp had been fired. He was always dangerous, as his left-hand punch landed with a thud, and, as he forced Baldwin to give ground.

Eleventh Round Fast.

The best fighting of the bout took place in the eleventh round. Baldwin started to force the issue in this session, and after a series of punches landed a smashing left hook to Brown's jaw, which sent "Kayo" reeling against the ropes.

Matty followed up his advantage with several ripping punches to Brown's head and body which caused the blonde-fighter to stagger. He had not possessed a knockout punch, but he might have stopped the New Yorker. But Matty's lands are not as strong as they used to be.

Baldwin took great liberties with Brown. He evidently was of the opinion that he was a sure winner, and, instead of hitting straight from the shoulder, he made a number of wing swings, several of which hit the mark.

The men started fighting at a fast pace in the first round, and Baldwin had a slight shade on his opponent.

He tried to better advantage in the second and third sessions, and held the lead of the sixties. He stopped many of Brown's rushes with his left jab, while he jured "Kayo" with left hooks to the jaw.

Eddie Murphy's presence was very speed, and by rugged work gained the verdict. Joe scored many hard blows, and they showed up Matty.

Frank Ryan of the U. S. S. Kentucky knocked out Tom Burke of South Jersey in three rounds, while Peter Brown of Paris and first in the States, in his next opponent will be Frank Moran of Paris, adding that Moran will win to a moral certainty.

Canterbury

A brand new life has been returned from Paris, says that the first good housewife who meets Jack Johnson will beat him to a frazzle. Hever means that Johnson weighs 250 pounds and actually waddles. He says the big negro is all in bunched and no longer is able to command his money in the music halls. Brewer expresses the opinion that Johnson never will agree to box either Langford or Fenwick in Paris, and that he is going to his next opponent will be Frank Moran of Paris, adding that Moran will win to a moral certainty.

CITY LEAGUE BOWLERS IN HARD MATCHES

Matches Tonight.

Murray at Old Colony.
Murray at Charway.
Rowes Wheel at Erie.
Hayward at Holyoke.

At the same time the following of the league will have a chance to witness an interesting fight for second place between Murray and Charway on the 12th.

Three teams are now tied for the runner-up position with twelve wins and four lost.

Bill Barry's team is the popular favorite in this match for more than one reason. In the first place it has a far better record.

Murray is really clinging to the lead by sheer luck as his pupils would indicate. Charway will also have the advantage of rolling on its home alley, which should be furthered in the standing that it will have an opportunity to do some climbing tonight when it meets Hayward on the home alley.

Hayward has the third best pin fall in the league, but it is in fifth place in an even break in its games.

The Alto-River's Wharf team which will have an interesting bout on the standing on the former alley. It will move up if either Charway or Murray would fall down completely. Ed Grogan's team may also move up provided they get an even break or better with Erie and Hayward loses the majority of its points.

Schoolboy Sport Notes

WALTHAM HIGH IS TAKING on a tough proposition next Saturday when it takes Maiden High at Waltham. Neither team has been beaten this fall and they have played some strong elevens. This game is attracting much attention and the outcome will be looked for with great interest as a victory for either team will be one step nearer the State championship.

SEABOARD THE COLONIAL fullback of the strong English High eleven, is putting up a white-hot game. It will be remembered that he was the star in the basketball all year.

THE ALLEN FAMILY IS WELL represented on the Waltham High team. Three brothers are playing regular and their work has been of the best.

"DAD" MOUTON, THE FORMER Mechanic Arts fullback and pitcher, is playing in his old time form at City Academy this fall.

COACH JOHN O'BRIEN HAS developed Joe Sullivan into a fine drop kicker. Few high school players can drop one over from the thirty yard line.

"BRICK" MENNIS, BROTHER of "Stuffy" and pitcher in Gloucester High basketball team last Spring, has signed again with the Athletics.

ROBERTY LATIN HAS A GOOD many in Waltham. He ought to be a great help to the team in preparatory league championship games.

SWEETMAN AND YOUNG ARE well having it out in the Harvard-Lowell cross-country race. They are both fast and shifty and claim their plays with variety.

PITZBERG'S former Beverly High star, is holding down left half on the Ivan Academy team. Fitzberg was once halfback when he played for Beverly.

ALBERT WANDERLICH, who finished second in the Harvard-Lowell cross-country race, has been elected manager of the team. He would like to hear from other high schools in regard to arranging for meets.

Her name? Well, it's not a very common one, but it is a very pretty one. It is the name of a very handsome woman in your eyes, and if you are a man, with a refusal to stand on your head.

LARGEST NET PAID CIRCULATION IN NEW ENGLAND, DAILY AND SUNDAY

First, Stop Wrecks on the New Haven

That there was not a long list of killed as well as of injured in the accident to the "Gilt Edge Express" on the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, near Westerly, R. I., on Saturday night, is not due to any improved condition of the road which might reassure the public.

At the "White Dog Curve," well known as one of the most dangerous places on the road, five coaches were overturned, with the train going at only twenty-five miles an hour. There had been heavy rains, but the accident is ascribed to a broken rail which had a hidden flaw in it.

But this is the FIFTEENTH SERIOUS WRECK in a little more than two years! Most of them have been DIRECTLY traceable to demoralization caused by the diversion of the necessary money for maintenance of equipment AND TRACKS to the monopolistic schemes of grasping directors, especially those two, the late J. P. Morgan and William Rockefeller, who dominated the board for so many years.

After the terrible Stamford wreck last June came an explosion of public indignation and disclosures through this newspaper and various investigations which shook even THAT board. Then, early last month, on the very day Mr. Howard Elliott became president of the road, he received a legacy from Melton, now under indictment, of the Wallingford catastrophe, in which twenty-one were killed and over two score injured. The monopolistic laids were halted. The duty of the new president, now chairman of the board, was direfully emphasized. It was to get the road into a condition of PHYSICAL SAFETY with the greatest possible speed.

Here are more than twenty names to be added to that appalling list of 484 killed and injured in wrecks on the New Haven road in a little more than two years!

The new management at once ordered steel cars, modern signals where they were needed, and at once began to spend more money on the maintenance of the road. BUT THEY HAVE NOT STOPPED THE WRECKS YET. They have not got the road into good physical condition yet.

The new management must not let the dead management be reflected in more wrecks and still added dead. It is startlingly evident that the very first need of the public is on the road itself. The business of railroading long ago ceased to be the chief business of the New Haven, and the new management has the task of restoring it to its place as the ONLY business of the road. On that effort every dollar and every ounce of energy possible should be instantly concentrated until the traveling public may feel as safe in New England as in any other section of the country in spite of the years of neglect and pillage.

Let Us Talk of Things in General

Copyright, 1913, by the Star Company.

President Eliot of Harvard says that poverty is a very happy condition and that low wages have nothing to do with immorality.

He did not demonstrate his fondness for poverty when he permitted his own name and the name and colors of Harvard College to be exploited in a money-making scheme to sell an extremely poor collection of books to those that won't read the books after they get them.

If Mr. Eliot had a daughter seventeen years old, working in a great city for four dollars a week or less, he might change his ideas as to the beauties of poverty.

Poverty is the mother of vice, of drunkenness, of dirt, disease and ignorance. Who does not know that knows nothing about real life.

The United States will be bigger before very long—Mexico will be added—and this in spite of procrastination, doubt and shilly-shallying.

We haven't got the very best government to offer the Mexicans, it is true. But we can offer them something better than government by murder. They won't like it at first. But in twenty years they will stick to this Union and resent any idea of separation as much as Texas or California would today.

Remember that plenty of men living recall the days when Texas was not a part of the United States.

A big London doctor says that there is no such thing as a criminal type. Of course there is no such thing. There is no such thing as a criminal plan or a criminal ideal. Either may be badly-made or out of tune—but it is not criminal.

The human individual may have a skull badly made, a brain badly fed, a neglected education that represents defective tuning. But there is no criminal type.

Unfortunately our prisons are based on the contrary assumption. And those prisons that should harmonize and through kindness correct the brains that are out of tune are actually nurseries for the production of criminals and the encouragement of crime.

New York City has the tallest building in the world—except the Eiffel Tower. It has something much more important—the lowest mortality rate in all of its history.

In view of the present disgraceful murders and persecutions in Russia based on race hatred it is well to remind this Christian nation that it owes its low infant mortality and the lives of hundreds of thousands of children to a Jew, Nathan Straus, who made his fight for pure milk not only against corrupt politicians but against the doctors themselves.

Carnegie is glad the Kaiser took the pledge. Carnegie drinks weak Scotch whiskey HIMSELF, and the Kaiser did not take the Happiness, in this world, when it comes, comes incidentally. Make it the object of pursuit and it leads to a wild-goose chase, and never is attained. Follow some other object—and possibly, very possibly, we may find that we have caught happiness without drugging it. But likely enough the moment we say to ourselves: "Here it lies!—the chess of gold that treasure seekers would find—it is gone!"

MAIDEN MEDITATIONS.

Fortune does us neither good nor harm. She presents us with the matter and the seed, and we make joy or sorrow for ourselves. Just as children build houses they choose with their blocks.

Clothes warm us—not with their heat, but with our own, which they are adapted to cover and keep in!

If you have sufficient self-reliance to take care of yourself, out of your surplus energy you will be able to do much for others.

The best way to secure good friends is to be one.

Letters from American Readers

THE WORLD'S REAL WORK

Editor Boston American:

Referring to an article, "The World's Real Work," in your Sunday edition, I enjoyed reading this article very much and I know there are few people who realize your summary of things great and small. I hope you will publish other articles of this nature, so that the good and wise who are not connected with these large institutions may know what great tasks are being solved in these places of knowledge.

In your article you use the Chicago University as the basis. It is to this that I wish to call your attention. I understand that the official list in the University of Chicago and that it is a very great distinction to the university and its annual because of associating the University of Chicago with the Chicago University which has ceased to exist for a number of years.

Very respectfully yours,

A. LARGER NAVY

Editor Boston American:

Secretary of the Navy Daniels seems to have "hit the nail on the head" in his advocacy of a larger navy. The amazing thing is that those pink-headed statesmen down in Washington can't see the need of it. They will "wake up" some day, but it may be too late. The old ship and the Kaiser and a few others will have to be scrapped.

Man has now found how to send power without wires to an airship—the problem of transportation will be solved.

To the Honorable William Randolph Hearst,
Boston American,
Boston, Mass.

Esteemed Sir:

"At a meeting of our Congregation Sunday evening, October 26, 1913, it was unanimously voted that we send you the following resolution:

"That we, the members of the Congregation of Brotherly Love, consisting of 500 members, hereby acknowledge and tender you our heartfelt thanks in appreciation of your infinite and noble efforts towards the cause of our Hebrew Race at large, and especially towards one of our unfortunate Brothers in Russia.

"In each generation the children of Jacob had their different angels to protect them from the oppressors of their Race, and in this century the children of Jacob have you to protect them from their oppressors.

"We all pray that God may grant you long life and health, so that you may be able to continue your untiring efforts to uplift the Human Race, which you are so nobly exercising."

Respectfully yours,
CONGREGATION OF BROTHERLY LOVE,
Cor. Elm St. and Everett Ave., Chelsea, Mass.

Let Us Talk of Things in General

pledge. He advised others not to drink. He owns a cafe in which he sells good wine.

The Chinese in Southern California are no longer able to get opium. So they take gin instead, and they are much better Chinamen. If they could not get the gin they would take beer or California wine and be still better. That last remark applies to Americans as well as to Chinese laborers.

Take away the worst thing and man gets along with something less harmful. Take away opium and he smokes tobacco. Take away bull fights and gladiatorial exhibitions, he plays baseball.

The girls of Wellesley bolt their food—no news could be worse than that. It does not really matter to the human race whether the girls at Wellesley learn Greek and Latin or merely learn to read. But if they ruin their digestion and thus impair their health and good blood supply, that is serious—it means inferior citizens in the future.

If necessary, every Wellesley girl should have one professor to make her eat slowly—no more important work for the faculty, and this we say seriously.

The parcels post is growing. We are handling a bigger parcels post load now than last Christmas time—and Christmas is supposed to be "the real load" with all the presents moving.

In a short time all parcels weighing a hundred pounds or less will be carried by the government—carry this news gently to the express companies and to those who say that government ownership cannot succeed.

Bears very long, by the way. ALL PARCELS AND ALL FREIGHTS will be carried by the government, which will own all the railroads and all the steamship lines.

One man killed 681 elephants—and the New York Bronx Zoo has just presented 14 bison to the United States Government to be put in a ten thousand-acre reservation in the West.

We instinctively denounce the man who killed 681 elephants, and we praise individuals who are trying to keep the bison alive. But we are wrong.

All the wild animals in Africa must be killed in order to get rid of the disease pests which they carry.

Elephants, bison, giraffes, all the animals must vanish from the earth, and man alone remain.

This seems a sad program, especially to those who enjoy the fun of hunting, fishing and otherwise destroying life, but it is the inevitable.

The Attorney-General of New York says that he will not allow Thaw's millions to keep him from the insane asylum.

Does Mr. Carmody know and will he tell those millions are spent to hound Thaw and to vindicate "the good name" of Stanford White, whom Thaw destroyed?

Somebody with plenty of money is able to use the legal machinery in hounding Thaw. Can Carmody tell us anything about it?

Submarine mines can be exploded by wireless power. This makes war a little more difficult and dangerous—an excellent thing.

Man has now found how to explode electrically a dynamite charge several miles away without wires. When he finds out how to send power without wires to an airship—the problem of transportation will be solved.

"THE AMERICAN IS RIGHT THERE"

Editor Boston American:

Thank you for your article in reply to my letter about Street Cleaning, and again emphatically THANK YOU for results.

I am convinced that your straight-to-the-point remarks caused the street cleaning machine out that I saw at work today and I know now that there is nothing, Mr. Editor, NOTHING that you cannot do. Moral: When you want something done and done quick, leave it to the AMERICAN! It is for the good of the public, the AMERICAN is "right there."
